

The Full Moon Rises Over the Trees

for the Full Moon Restaurant, Cambridge, Mass.

L Peter Deutsch
December 27, 2009

The musical score is written for four voices in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are as follows:

The full moon ri - ses o - ver the trees,
It shines on the pond and street:
Why should we stand out - side and freeze
in the breeze
When we can sit down to eat!

This is a 4-part round. It may be sung by any mix of men's and women's voices (the men singing an octave lower than written). The words "and freeze" may be used in cold weather, "in the breeze" in warmer weather. Enjoy!